

Team Flash Privacy Policy

Team Flash understands that you care about the privacy of your information and how your information is used and shared. We appreciate your trust that we will do so carefully and sensibly.

What Personal Information About Customers Does Team Flash Gather?

The information we receive from customers helps us personalize and continually improve your Data Classifier experience. Here are the types of information we gather:

- Information You Provide to Us: When you provide feedback through our form on the Contact Us Page, we store your full name and email through the Google Form.

Does Team Flash Share the Information It Receives?

Information we receive from our customers are an important part of our business, and we are not in the business of selling it to third parties. The only times we will share customer information only as described below:

- Protection of Team Flash and Others: We will release personal information when we believe release is the appropriate course of action to comply with the law and other agreements; or protect the rights, property, or safety of Team Flash, our users, or others. This includes but not limited to exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction. However, this does not include selling, renting, sharing, or otherwise disclosing personal identifiable information from customers for commercial purposes in violation of the commitments set forth in this Privacy Notice.
- With Your Consent: You will receive a notice when your information is being released to third parties, and you will have an opportunity to choose not to disclose the information. Note that this clause excludes what is stated above.

What does Team Flash do with the Datasets You Upload?

Team Flash will not collect, or share any of the datasets that you upload to our Data Classifier Application. It will be stored with respect to the administrator account that is logged in during the time of the upload. It will only be shared with people the administrator has given permission to, and the administrator can revoke permission to anyone at any time at their own will.

How Secure Is Your Personal Information?

When your personal information is transferred to Team Flash from Google Forms, it is protected by the security of Google LLC. Google LLC security can be found here.

Notices and Revisions

If you have any concerns about the privacy at Team Flash, please contact us with a thorough description, and we will try to resolve any issues. Our business changes constantly, and our Privacy Policy will also change. We will email customers whenever we update the privacy policy. Users have an option to opt out of the emails in their settings. Unless stated otherwise, our current Privacy Policy applies to all information that we have about you.
